UNED Forum

From 1 January 2002 UNED Forum will be known as Stakeholder Forum for Our Common Future. We are an international multi-stakeholder organization committed to the promotion of global sustainable development. Based in London, UNED's activities support the work of the UNEP, the UNDP, the CSD and other UN bodies committed to sustainable development.

Since 1998 the UNED Forum has been building its work in preparation for Earth Summit 2002 in Johannesburg. Within this remit, the UNED Forum is engaged in the following activities:

- Promoting multi-stakeholder partnerships.
- Researching and influencing policy.
- Providing and spreading information.
- Training and building capacity.

UNED Forum operates both internationally and within the UK, where it operates as UNED-UK Committee.

Members of UNED Forum's International Advisory Board and its UK-based Executive Committee include representatives from local government, trade unions, industry, NGOs, women, youth, academics, faith community, education community and the media.

UNED Forum's work on multi-stakeholder processes is a key activity, linked to most of our activities. We are building on our experiences, increasing the network and promoting the approach, experimenting, aiming to create a learning hub for stakeholders.
